£10K BOOST FOR VILLAGE HALL

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@findlenews.co.uk

A £10,000 grant means a leaky roof will be a thing of the past at Musbury Village Hall.

It was announced last week that the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All scheme has agreed to grant £10,000 towards roof repairs at the hall.

Dr Gerard Wood, of the village hall committee in Musbury, said: "We were overjoyed, it is not the first time we have applied.

"It's amazing, especially getting the maximum amount." He estimates the total cost at £16,000 and the grant means that the committee now has the money required thanks to previous fundraising plus donations from other organisations and charities.

Dr Wood said there has been village halls on the site since 1928, and the current one was opened in 1984.

The roof has been leaking for a while, which is why fundraising is at such an advanced stage.

Money has been raised through events like a dance, a raffle and a joint Christmas tree festival with the village church.

A number of donations have also been gratefully received, including £500 from the Musbury Castle Challenge. It is hoped that the roof replacement will commence at some point during the next two months. The roof will be replaced section by section to minimise disruption to hall bookings.

"We will keep the hall open as best we can," Dr Wood explained. He also said that the hall will host a belated Christmas carols performance on Saturday, March 6th.

It is understood that a production elsewhere last Christmas fell through and it was decided to relocate and run it late rather than let the production go to waste.

The event is a joint fundraiser with Whitford Village Hall, featuring actors from Seaton Drama Group.

Tickets are £5 and available from Musbury Post Office.

A Big Lottery Funds spokesperson said: "The Awards for All programme aims to help improve local communities and the lives of people most in need.

"You can apply to Awards for All only if you are a community group, not for profit group, parish or town council, health body, or school.

Grants ranging from £300 to £10,000 are available to fund a specific project or activity."

Volunteers needed as spotters to help police

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER police would like to hear from potential volunteer spotters.

A number of spotters have already been recruited and used in recent overnight operations against crime in rural areas.

The spotters work in pairs and are tucked away in a vehicle that is parked where it can't be seen.

They are issued with a police radio, fixed to a specific channel, and report vehicular movements to police officers who use the information to decide if there is reason to stop and take a closer look at the vehicle.

Sergeant Peter Trudgeon stressed that all the spotters do is observe — they have clear instructions not to get involved in any other way.

He also said that spotters' observations had played a crucial role in a recent cannabis-related arrest.

Potential spotters must be aged 18 or over and checks will be carried out to make sure they are suitable to assist officers.

Successful applicants will be put on a list and contacted by police one or two hours before an operation commences.

Those interested can visit Axminster Police Station or leave their contact details on 01297 420 89.

Investigation over theft of quad bike

POLICE in Axminster are investigating the theft of a quad bike that was stolen from a farm in the Musbury area, close to the A358, between 10pm and midnight on Sunday, February 21st.

The quad bike is described as a red Honda and it had a homemade single axle trailer.

Police are asking farmers and rural householders to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KA/10/89.

Alternatively call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Taxi driver does karaoke

AN Axminster cabbie entertained listeners by singing a Madness song on live radio last week.

Richard Payne, who runs Payne's Premier Travel, appeared on BBC Radio Devon on Thursday, February 18th.

During their show, presenters David Sheppard and Jo Loosemore every so often invite Devon taxi drivers to perform a karaoke, also known on the show as a cabaoke.

Mr Payne chose Driving in My Car by Madness, and said: "I went to see Madness a few weeks ago, so the words were fresh in my mind."

"I've been told it's best not to give up the day job. I think my daughter was praying none of her school friends were listening."

◆ RAINBOW Under-5s Playgroup in Axminster is good and well-organised according to an Ofsted report. Drink-drive duo charged

TWO Seaton men have been arrested for drink-driving.

The first incident took place at around 9.30pm on Friday, February 12th when police received a report that a car had collided with a hedge in Coly Road, Colyton.

A 25-year-old man from Seaton was found with the vehicle and provided a positive roadside breath test. He has been charged with drink driving and will appear at Exeter magistrates court on Tuesday, March 2nd.

The second incident occurred at 6pm on Saturday, February 13th.

A 45-year-old man from Seaton was seen driving his car along Fore Street in Beer. He then drove the wrong way up Long Hill when he was stopped by officers.

The man provided a positive breath sample and has since been charged with drink driving.

He will also appear at Exeter magistrates on March 2nd.

Daylight theft of greenhouse

A GREENHOUSE was stolen in broad daylight from a property in Kilmington.

Police are appealing for information and say the 6ft timber frame greenhouse was apparently unscrewed from the floor and taken away from an address in Hillcrest.

The theft happened at some point between 12noon and 5pm on Friday, February 19th.

Anyone with information is asked to call 08452 777 444 and ask for Axminster police.

The crime reference number is KA/10/83.

Cash reward offered for return of pet dogs

A HONITON farmer is offering a cash reward for information that leads to the return of his two beloved Jack Russell dogs.

Mark Evans lives at Blannicombe Farm, just east of Honiton, and his dogs went missing on February 2nd.

He said: "They were with me when they ran across a field. They have done it before but always came back."

But two-year-old Lolly and six-year-old Jemma, pictured, failed to return on this occasion and Mr Evans hasn't seen them since.

His daughter Rosie said: "We have put posters up and contacted local dog wardens and contacted many dog pounds and rescue centres."

"They have also been listed on www.doglost.co.uk

"There were initially a couple of possible sightings during the first week of them being missing but there has since been nothing."

"We are appealing to everyone to keep an eye out for them, being such friendly characters we imagine they have been picked up by someone."

"As you can imagine my dad is distraught with worry, he lives on his own and they are his companions and loving pets and not working animals."

"My dad is offering a cash reward for information leading to their return, no questions asked, he just wants them back home where they belong."

Members of the public are kindly asked to report possible sightings or other relevant information to Mr Evans on 07866267189.

Free event to celebrate coast

AN event to celebrate Seaton's natural environment and the Jurassic coast will be held at Seaton Town Hall tomorrow evening from 6pm until 8pm.

The two-hour meeting is open to everyone and entry is free.

It coincides with the relaunch of the Seaton Visitor Centre Trust (SVCT), which is on the lookout for new members.

Guest speakers including professor Denys Brunsten, of the Jurassic Coast

Trust, will be giving presentations on the night.

Mr Brunsten will talk about what inspired him to strive for world heritage site status for the Jurassic coast and what makes Seaton's natural environment so unique.

Dr Sam Rose, world heritage site team leader, and Donald Campbell, chairman of the east Devon AONB, trustee of the SVCT and vice chairman of the Exmouth and Seaton visitor centre board, will also be giving talks.

Julie Richens, of SVCT, said: "Help us celebrate the natural environment we live in and that many people visit, through listening to our inspirational speakers and joining us for light refreshments."

"There will be time before, and after the speakers, to judge our table-top competition entries, look at the information displays and meet with the guest speakers, representatives of the SVCT, Axe Estuary, Natural England, Jurassic Coast Team, architects and design specialists and other partners, working hard to create the vision of the Seaton visitor centre."

A table-top display competition has also been organised and entrants are asked to design a table that represents what they love about Seaton.

The winning display will receive six tickets for SVCT's Jurassic coast cruise.

For more information about the event and the table top competition visit www.seatonvisitorcentretrust.org or contact 01297 21056.

Assault men to stand trial

THREE men from Exeter have been charged with an assault against two men from Honiton following an incident at the Pit Club in Honiton.

The incident took place in the early hours of March 21st 2009.

According to police reports, four men were arrested within days of the assault. Two of the suspects were released with no further action taken against them at the time.

However, a further investigation was launched and one of the suspects who was released was rearrested.

The three men are due to stand trial at Exeter Crown Court on Wednesday, June 23rd.

Ian Tyers, the detective sergeant leading the investigation, said: "No matter how long it takes we will ensure that all investigative avenues are exhausted."

"Fortunately such serious assaults are rare events in east Devon but this incident resulted in nasty, long term injuries and it is right that the evidence in relation to those involved should be heard before the crown court."

Crew attends chimney fire

FIREFIGHTERS put out a chimney fire at a property in Crewkerne Road, Raymonds Hill on Sunday, February 21st.

An appliance from Axminster responded to a call at 7.47pm and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The fire was involving the wood burning stove."

"The fire crews used small tools and chimney gear."

Biodiversity nature report

A REPORT is going to be produced detailing the biodiversity of six Blackdown Hills parishes, including Hemyock.

Dr David Allen will be in charge of these reports which will include maps showing areas of important habitat or notable species, and ideas for nature conservation action that the local community might like to pursue.

They have three basic elements: A description of the parish's wildlife, some initial ideas for action, and a section linking the wildlife to the Devon Biodiversity and Geodiversity Action Plan (BAP).

The Devon BAP provides a framework for the co-ordinated action for the county's most important habitat and species. These particular reports are important because any local action carried out can contribute towards wildlife conservation priorities on a national scale.

Police choir hosts concert

A FUNDRAISING concert is to be hosted by Exeter Police and Community Choir in Axminster Guildhall.

The concert, in aid of Hospiscare, will take place on Thursday, March 4th and starts at 7.30pm.

The concert will also feature soloist performances by husband and wife Wensleigh and Jacqueline Palmer.

Tickets are £10 and can be purchased from the Hospiscare Shop or Archway Bookshop, both in Axminster.

Visitors treble hailing PACT format success

A NEW PACT meeting format was hailed a success after the number of visitors more than trebled.

PACT stands for Partners and Communities Together, and is a police-led initiative also involving local authorities and other agencies.

Members of the public are invited once or twice a year to air any concerns relating to issues covered by PACT members.

Previous PACT meetings in Axminster Guildhall have struggled to attract the general public, the highest attendance being just over 30 people for one meeting.

Previous meetings have featured a panel of PACT members, led by a chairman, with speeches followed by questions from the floor.

But on January 28th, a new workshop-style format was tried. Instead of a chairman leading the meeting, the various organisations and agencies got a table each in the Guildhall, and visitors could speak directly and individually with a person dealing with a specific matter.

For example, Devon County Council's Highways table and East Devon District Council's dog warden table were reported to have been quite busy.

Axminster Town Council representatives were at the meeting and councillor Jeremy Walden said the meeting and its new format was "very good".

Since the meeting, councillor Douglas Hull has also praised fellow councillor John Jeffery for greeting people at the meeting and escorting them to the people they wished to see.

More than 100 people attended the meeting, and afterwards representatives left with a much greater knowledge of what people in the local area feel strongly about according to police.

When promoting the meeting, police deliberately played down its own involvement and marketed the event along the lines of a Let's Talk Community Issues meeting as opposed to another PACT event.

A total of 86 issues were raised, and a clear top three list was established. The issue people were most concerned about was maintenance of roads, second was dog fouling, with parking third.

PC Darren Herridge, who attended the meeting, said: "Before we set these priorities in stone, I would like to give residents a short amount of time to contact us if they disagree that this is what our partner agencies and ourselves should concentrate on."

"We will then look at working closely with the relevant agency to ensure that the matters raised are resolved if possible."

Anyone who wishes to raise any matters with PC Herridge and the Axminster Neighbourhood Policing Team, can either visit the station during office hours or go through the online form at <http://neighbourhoodpolicing.devon-cornwall.police.uk/BCU-1663/Sector-1739/NB-1743/Pages/ContactUs.aspx>.

Photography competition

THE deadline for Devon Wildlife Trust's (DWT) annual wildlife photographic competition is getting closer.

DWT's 43 nature reserves include a range of habitats such as woodlands, meadows, wetlands and heaths.

Photos, which must be sent in before the March 31st, must be taken at any one of these reserves.

There are four age categories in the competition; Under 7, 7-11, 12-16 and adults, suitable for all abilities.

The winning photographs will be published in the charity's magazine, Wild Devon, and selected entries will also be exhibited around the country. DWT relies on charitable donations, grants and support from their members and the general public, so a £2 fee will be charged, which will go towards wildlife conservation and education throughout Devon.

For more information, visit www.devonwildlifetrust.org and click on 'Photo Competition.'

Cinema gets a good start

Julie and Julia was shown to a packed hall and organisers are now looking forward to the next movie on Thursday, March 11th.

The screening of A Bunch of Amateurs (12A) will start at 7.30pm, and tickets are £5 on the night or £4.50 in advance.

Advance tickets are available from Vicky Wiggins on 01404 861256, Lesley Pidgeon on 01404 881634 or Mary Smith on 01404 861541.

Iconic hall will return home as a war museum

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@hindlenews.co.uk

AN iconic village hall will return to its former home and serve as a museum after more than 60 years of sterling service to the people of Umberne.

In its place will be a new purpose-built village hall more suited to 21st Century peacetime.

Umberne Hall's farewell gig will be on Friday, February 26th when a soup and pudding evening is staged for those still alive who have kept it going over the years.

The wartime Nissen hut will be dismantled in March and taken back to the airfield in Dunkeswell and turned into a museum.

The corrugated hut once accommodated American airmen at the airfield in Dunkeswell, and the trust aims to house a wartime artefacts museum in the hut.

A statement issued by Umberne Institute secretary Geoff Elliott explained: "For more than 60 years it has stood on a junction of narrow country lanes in the hamlet of Umberne, providing the scattered community with its only meeting place.

"It was the WI — later to disaffiliate itself from the national body and become the Umberne Ladies Social Club — which bought the corrugated hut and turned it into what it has since become: Devon's most quaint, draughty, damp, leaky, loved and unloved village hall."

Institute trustees have been fundraising towards a replacement for many years.

Having raised £41,000, most of it from community events in the hall, they have also attracted £27,000 in grants.

Another £20,000 must be raised, but trustees have accepted a quotation from Harris Timber Products, based at Whimple, to erect a timber-framed building on the site of the old hut.

It is hoped building work will begin in mid-March, the site being expanded with land given by farmer Lilian Bird for a larger car park.

Construction time is estimated at 12 weeks — so the first event should take place before the end of the summer.

Umberne Institute chairman Rob Summers said that the trustees had two choices: to accept the grants being offered through the Community Council of Devon, knowing that more money had to be found from somewhere, or reject the offers that would probably never be made again.

He added: "We chose to go ahead. We felt we had to do something for local people even if we had to go to them again for more money. We had been promising it to them for so long."

In March trustees will visit all local households, asking them to buy Umberne bonds and the chance of a big prize in an annual draw. The bonds will be loans, to be repaid on demand or as soon as the trustees have raised enough money to clear them.

Alternatively, people can make gifts under the Revenue and Customs Gift Aid scheme that will then be worth a further 25 per cent to the hall's rebuilding.

At the institute's annual meeting recently, people were able to study plans both for the hall and for raising more money, and gave unanimous support, according to the institute.

Trustees Rob Summers, Eleanor Wood, Paul Forster and Kimmo Evans were re-elected and were joined by new trustee Neville Cheeseman.

Tributes were paid to Neil Shepherd who had contributed energetically as a trustee until his sudden death in December 2009. The website he built for the community will stand as his legacy. It will now be run by his closest friend, Bill Corr.

Is three magic number for run on home turf?

A THREE-STRONG running team will be on home turf as they tackle The Grizzly 2010 on Sunday March 7th.

Margaret Pearce, Chris Hill and Annie Thurgood are preparing for the gruelling 20-mile multi-terrain challenge - and hope to raise money for a good cause in the process.

Margaret is the fundraising co-ordinator and has chosen Seaton Hospital League of Friends.

Margaret, who lives in Seaton, said: "It is local and I have used the hospital myself for physio on a knee after an accident. Lots of people I know use it as well."

About race tactics, she said: "We will stick together and help each other along."

Anyone wishing to make a contribution can call her on 01297 21603 for a sponsorship form.

King Edward's walking stick under hammer

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

A WALKING stick that once belonged to King Edward VII will go under the hammer at a Honiton auction house.

The prized possession could fetch around £300 and has been in the same east Devon family since 1945.

Sir Ralph Champneys Williams met the King and Queen Mary on their tour of India — the King presented Sir Ralph with one of his own walking sticks and in return Sir Ralph presented the Queen with a copy of his memoirs.

However, the walking stick was lost during a house fire at the family home in Kenya. But all was not lost. A few years later Sir Ralph's son, Major Geoffrey Howard-Williams, wrote to King George VI, who was on the throne at the time, to ask for a replacement.

In due course, back from Sandringham came a package, dated December 29th 1945.

Since then the walking stick, which is stamped 'Balmoral' and bears King Edward VII's crest, has remained in the family, passing by descent to the present owner, Sir Ralph's great grandson who discovered it whilst emptying his late father's home in east Devon.

Liz Chilcott, of Chilcott's

◆ THE walking stick and letter that will be auctioned on Saturday, February 27th auctioneers, said: "Obviously this walking stick — like the one it replaced — was a dear friend to Sir Ralph and while it is likely to sell for less than £300 the story behind how it came to be sent from Sandringham to Kenya is really heartwarming.

"Clearly Sir Ralph was held in very high regard by the royal family and it is a mark of King George's generosity, for which he was well known. We are delighted to be asked to auction it."

The auction takes place at Chilcott's Honiton showroom on Silver Street on Saturday, February 27th.

Store's amended bid

GERMAN supermarket chain Aldi has officially handed in its amended application to build a store in Honiton.

The application was received by East Devon District Council (EDDC) last week and includes plans to build a 1,543 square metre foodstore with associated access, car parking and landscaping.

If the plan is approved the Aldi store will be built on the site of Slade's Countrywise, opposite the Honiton Motel at Turks Head.

As previously reported, Aldi has received a warm welcome in Honiton with members of the town council and members of the chamber of commerce giving the application their backing.

A spokesman for Aldi said: "Aldi already have a planning consent for, and are the freehold owners of, the 'Slades Countrywise' site in Honiton, consent was granted in 2009.

"We have resubmitted an application to make a few minor amendments to the existing consent to bring the store size in line with the Aldi 2010 specification."

Rival German store Lidl is also hoping to build in Honiton at the site of the BP garage.

Emma gets set for 'fast track' trip

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster girl is off to Mexico after having raised the required funds quicker than expected.

This article was meant to drum up support and attract sponsorship for girl guide Emma Tristram's two week trip in April — but once a date for interview had been agreed, she had already raised the £1,500 needed for the trip.

She is very grateful to all the individuals and organisations who helped her reach her target, and said: "Thank you very much. I wasn't confident at the start, but I'm really surprised at the level of support."

Her mum, Debbie, confirmed it had been a tough start and a planned maggot race evening in January had to be called off.

Debbie said: "All of a sudden it seemed to come together. It was really daunting but friends, family and organisations and people in the town have been very helpful."

Apart from donations from generous people and organisations, the money has been raised through various initiatives like a car wash and having a stall at a Christmas bazaar.

Emma, aged 15, will travel to a guide centre called Our Cabana in Mexico. Guides from all over the world will come together to celebrate 100 years of guiding and Emma will travel with local guide leader Rachel Tattersell as part of the Devon Girlguiding entourage.

Apart from celebrating the guide movement's 100th anniversary, Emma and fellow guides will also help with a Mexican housing project and a three-day visit to Mexico City is also on the itinerary.

Emma got involved at the age of five when a friend of the family set up a Rainbow group in the town.

Her mum said: "We couldn't dream of it leading to going abroad."

Emma, who will leave for Mexico on April 1st, concluded: "I will be meeting guides from all around the world and I am looking forward to hearing about their cultures and how they run their guide units."

"I'm really excited but I'm quite nervous as well."

Firefighters get village pub call

FIREFIGHTERS from Honiton were sent to the scene of a fire at the Yarcombe Inn, Yarcombe, on Friday, February 19th.

The incident took place just before 9pm and involved an electrical circuit breaker at the pub.

On arrival at the pub, crews found that the fire had already been extinguished. They assisted an electrician in making the area safe.

Young ladies an inspiration

WHEN we are surrounded by so many terrible things that are happening across the world — fighting in Afghanistan, knife and gun crime and shocking lifestyles of those in Third World countries — it is a breath of fresh air to know there is still human kindness about... and even better when it is on your own doorstep.

The 'youth of today' (I still class myself as this but I think I have passed it now I am 30) get a bad press in general within television, film and the media.

What with gang warfare on our streets, drink and drugs and, although we all know it happens and those things are a huge problem in today's society, we must remember that it is only a portion of youngsters and we must not tar all those under-30s with the same brush (the chance of being eligible for tarring would be a fine thing!).

To highlight this fact and to prove it, just look at what happened last weekend.

Two local women organised a huge glitzy ball to take place at Uplyme Village Hall to raise money for charity — and they are both just whipper-snappers in their early 20s.

The girls in question, Jess Chapple, a hairdresser in Axminster, and Lucy Coombe, a legal secretary also in Axminster, gave up masses of their spare time to put on this event in aid of Force cancer charity and Exeter's Hospiscare.

Both ladies have lost close relatives to the unforgiving disease and have shown particular strength at taking on this mammoth task which is very close to their hearts.

Not an easy option for anyone, taking on this size of event was a big commitment, but for a pair not long out of their teens when all said and done, I think they should be celebrated for their hard work.

The black-tie do was a champagne-on-arrival treat with fantastic local band Real World performing, followed by a disco by Simon Flux.

The finger buffet and bar was provided by the Talbot Arms, Uplyme, and there were some great prizes on offer in the grand draw. I didn't win anything but my prospective sister-in-law was over the moon with a fabulous beauty hamper she managed to win.

The night went brilliantly and, with 250 guests, it was a raging success. Speaking yesterday (Monday), Jess said that she was so pleased with the evening and, although she didn't yet know the total raised, she knew it was a lot and thanked everyone involved.

So there you go, there are some young people who are prepared to get out there and do something good. Jess and Lucy are an inspiration and I think they should be congratulated.

Police dismay

EDITOR — What is our police force coming to? Several years ago our chief constable asked for a hike in precept for the force.

This was to get more officers on the beat or so we were told. Now we have a new chief constable and a decrease in numbers to go with it?

Apart from community officers, who have very limited powers, we are now being asked to supply Volunteer Administration Officers to monitor speeding on the road through Colyford.

Is there anything else they would like us to do whilst we are at it?

This is a stretch of road with many problems not just speeding.

Try 8.30am and 3pm during term time. Plus the level crossing which regularly gets ignored when the lights are red. In 10 years I can only remember one occurrence of a prosecution for jumping the lights. Even though this happens several times a day during the season.

Can we have a Volunteer Administration Officer plus volunteers to monitor this crossing?

Town's meters

EDITOR — With reference to the proposed parking meters in Seaton, there may be some room for manoeuvre as far as the esplanade is concerned, so long as consideration is extended to those directly affected.

However, with regard to the proposed metering within the town centre itself, this would not only affect its already fragile wellbeing, but would also only serve to drive even more trade out of its business area.

The meters themselves would in effect become a poisoned chalice.

Shock at privilege of free parking for EDDC staff

EDITOR — Having read the article by Ben Middleton about car parking for EDDC staff I was truly shocked to see that they do not have to pay.

Any person who is able to park immediately outside their place of work is, in my opinion, in a very privileged position, unlike, for example, a person who may work in Boots in the High Street who will either have to find on-street parking with probably a fifteen minute walk or alternatively pay for parking all day in a public car park.

State employees whose jobs are normally somewhat safer than in other commercial companies in these difficult times should be glad they have a job and should be quite prepared to pay out, I feel, at least £2 per day — if it will go towards maintaining EDDC coffers — is a respectable amount and would help to stop any increase in Council Tax.

I hardly feel that anyone will hand in their notice even with the threat of a unitary council.

On doing some research I find that Exeter College, where I worked until retirement, brought in charges about four years ago and staff have to pay £4 per day, £2.50 if less than six hours. Were they outraged? of course they were. But they had to pay and now many more use car-share or public transport.

At Exeter University staff have been paying for around 10 years and interestingly they are now bringing in a scheme to hit the gas guzzlers hard with lower costs to smaller more efficient vehicles.

This 'green' initiative is surely the way to go. Even visitors pay £3 a day. Staff at DCC pay up to £2 a day depending on salary again an encouragement for car-sharing and use of public transport.

Councillor Roger Giles was quite right to raise the suggestion of car parking charges for staff and I find it quite deplorable that he was not supported in his views.

The pathetic response from the EDDC spokesperson following consultation with the management, quoted: "Sidmouth is very different from Exeter as it has no railway station and a very limited bus service", poppycock. Staff at DCC County Hall are hardly likely to use the railway as the station is a good half hour walk or a walk to the bus station and then a bus out along Topsham Road.

As for Sidmouth having a limited bus service — buses arrive in Sidmouth before 9am from Exeter, Newton Poppleford, Clyst St Mary, Seaton, Exmouth, Budleigh Salterton, Colaton Raleigh and Honiton and also return with a choice of times after 5pm. Very limited is the sort of bus service we have in Colyton.

I would ask that Mark Williams, chief executive EDDC, by copy of my letter, raise the matter again with his management and discuss fully.

I also find it quite extraordinary that the corporate overview and scrutiny committee can throw out such an income-producing suggestion so lightly. Roger Giles is obviously a responsible citizen who intelligently spotted a means of increasing EDDC income without, as ever, burdening council tax payers. Every possible means of saving money and increasing income needs to be looked at and this seems a simple, easy way to institute and manage policy which could bring almost instant results.

Tony, Help!

EDITOR — After reading Tony Jackson's weekly column in Pulman's View From I have been meaning to write for ages.

Last autumn I was dusting down the side of a radiator when something buzzed and a large brown spider shot out and ran across the floor. No sign of a bee. So do spiders buzz? I'm really curious.

Also this winter when we had snow on the ground and the bird bath had frozen I noticed starlings and blackbirds would eat the snow, but not sparrows or small birds. Is this normal?

I did put fresh water out for them each day. One day I had only just got back indoors and a starling was having a bath. He filled the dish and was having a lovely time. I was shivering indoors and thinking how cold he'd be.

I hope I can get some answers. Here's hoping.

No crossing

EDITOR — Why, I ask has an outdoor play area in Battishorne Way, Honiton, without any provision for a pedestrian crossing been allowed?

We all know this facility is hugely beneficial to children. However, next to a busy road and no crossing surely this is a huge hazard to children.

The very high road traffic injuries to the young during school holidays on the roads speaks volumes especially as this is the time when children would use this play area.

I was shaken to find myself almost a victim when crossing this road with my grandson.

This area is an accident zone without a crossing. A death trap for our children.

Advertiser's Announcement

New Street Veterinary Centre

MARCH is ORAL CARE MONTH

Dental disease is the most common preventable disease of pets. Over 80% of cats and dogs over the age of 3 require dental treatment now. The Good News is that the majority of dental problems are TREATABLE and nearly all are PREVENTABLE.

Our pets are very poor at letting us know that they are suffering. They may simply be quieter than normal or more withdrawn. Many of us know the pain associated with mouth ulcers, some will have had the misfortune to have experienced a tooth root abscess. The nerve supply to dog's/cat's teeth is just as efficient as our own — there is no reason to suppose that they do not feel the same level of pain that we do with dental disease. Detecting pain in our pets can be very difficult — oral pain can be even harder to diagnose.

Often it is only when we see an improvement or change in behaviour after effective dental treatment, that we realise that our pet may have been suffering. Signs of Dental disease include : Bad breath, Tartar build up, Redness, Reluctance to play or eat, Pawing at the mouth, Pain, Bleeding, Swelling, Loose teeth, Pus.

If your pet is showing any of these signs, don't hesitate to book your FREE DENTAL CHECK UP appointment with one of our qualified nurses.

A talk on glory days riding the rail at meeting

IN a talk to the Devonshire Association Sean Day-Lewis — a name not unknown in these parts and a member of the association — gave a dissertation on the glory days of the railways in Devon.

Opening with a painting of the Blue Star locomotive by Peter Lund, who was present, he gave a vivid account of the golden days of railways and of steam in particular.

He remarked with some regret that while it was difficult to put a date to the beginning or end of that era, we might all agree that it is not now.

His 21st birthday present from his mother had been a non-stop trip from Sidmouth junction to Waterloo on the Southern Belle.

Officially non-stop it actually had to change engines at Wilton as the tender could not carry sufficient water.

Sean went on to give a history of events which led to the coming of the tracks to Seaton and was able to show that railways — of a sort — had existed as far back as the 17th century but it was not until 1830 that saw the true dawn of the system which would dominate the transport scene until the 1960s.

By 1907 there were 19,500 miles of track. The track to Seaton was opened in 1867, now used by the tramway, and closed in 1966.

Following that decision what Sean referred to as vandalism was to be seen all over the region and the Axe Vale line was reduced to single track.

Eventually design work started on a new loop at Axminster and the line was opened in 2009 allowing an hourly service to Waterloo.

In order to defray costs staffing has been cut and the station is now only partially manned — hardly an encouragement to customers.

An announcement that unattended parcels will be removed still exists though it is not clear who will do that.

Mr Day-Lewis, a traditionalist as well as a realist, is nevertheless not greatly enamoured of modern rail.

In his dry way he radiated wit as well as wisdom and gave his audience much to think about.

On March 10th the talk will be on Some Remarkable Devon Women and is open to all. The meeting will be held at Colyton Memorial Sports Pavilion at 2.30pm.

Retired GP gives an insight into practice

AT the February meeting of the Colyford Women's Institute the ladies were treated to a talk from retired local GP, Dr Askew.

Dr Askew grew up in Berkshire, and trained as a doctor at St George's Hospital before coming to Devon as a houseman at the old Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital in Southernhay.

He then left Devon to spend five years with the RAF, which included a three-year posting to Germany.

On returning to civilian life, Dr Askew came back to work as a GP in Colyton and Seaton.

Members were told of interesting characters in the area, and how life as a GP has changed over the years.

After answering many questions from members, Dr Askew was thanked by Anne Long.

During the business meeting which preceded the talk, members of the Chatterbox group planned to meet up over soup and a sandwich at the St Michael's Church fundraising event, and venues were suggested for the Ladies who Lunch outing in March.

Barbara Eavis won the competition for an old medical remedy, and the president's pink camellia was flower of the month.

Colyford Women's Institute has recruited several new members recently.

If any local ladies wish to join them, please come along to our next meeting on March 3rd, when Angela Parker will inspire us with her Easter cookery demonstration.

Estate's owner illustrates the fall and rise of Escot

JOHN-MICHAEL Kennaway came to the February meeting of the All Saints and District Women's Institute to give a most interesting illustrated talk entitled The Fall and Rise of a Country Estate, about the restoration of Escot House from its dilapidated state in 1980 when the family returned there after a period in Sidmouth.

In the early days they did much of the urgent repairs themselves, but slowly and surely things have improved and the house and gardens have been brought back from decay to the interesting place to visit we find today.

John-Michael is the sixth in line to take on the responsibility of this beautiful house and surrounding park land.

Home farm which used to supply all the needs of the family and their many guests became the Aquatic Centre and so began a series of sensitive developments which are still continuing today.

Old and young alike can enjoy a visit there.

The next meeting on Tuesday, March 2nd at 2.30 pm, will be very different as the group will hear — first hand — from Jean Watson about Prison Visiting.

Looking further ahead there is an open meeting on Tuesday, April 6th, when members welcome the well-known Rod Lawrence who will talk about the Wildlife of the Exe Valley.

Belated new year wishes after bad weather month

THE Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute's February meeting was held in the Methodist Old Schoolroom on Monday, February 8th.

The president welcomed the members. Because the January meeting was cancelled due to adverse weather conditions the president wished everyone a somewhat belated happy new year.

The treasurer's report stated that the club funds at the present are looking healthy.

The secretary issued members with the results of the resolutions which, this year had to be at County House by January 2010.

The Spring Council Meeting will be held at Torquay on April 21st when the main speaker will be Leslie Garrett.

Group secretary Rosemary Sprigg has organised a coach trip to Sherborne and Shaftesbury during the summer which interested many members.

The Soup and Roll luncheon has been organised at the secretary's house and there will be a Bring and Buy.

After the business had been concluded the members were entertained with a talk by Dawn Canham on Theatre Costumes and how she became involved with the stage.

Her working life began in a London hotel which allowed her to visit the theatre to see various matinees.

She returned to Devon and helped a friend repair stage costumes.

Her interest grew so much that she went on to college and became a professional stage designer.

We were lucky to see samples of her various designs.

The Competition of the Month was won by Jill Godfrey, second was Joyce Allsup and Barbara Neias came third.

The Flower of the Month was won by Ann Godfrey, second place to Joyce Allsup and third went to Neelia Day.

The next meeting will take place on Monday, March 8th.

A busy start

SEATON Women's Institute (WI) is starting the new year as it means to go on with a wide range of activities.

Currently a small sub-committee is designing and producing an entry for the table top competition What We Love About Seaton's Natural Environment. This is part of a wider fundraising evening by Seaton Visitor Centre Trust.

A team of four has been entered in the Devonshire Federation of Women's Institute's Quiz.

Some members and husbands enjoyed a group coach trip to Slimbridge Wildlife Sanctuary.

Sadly a much loved member Peggy Ball has passed away. Peggy gave a great deal of time and support to the WI over many years.

Next month the speaker's subject will be The History of Axminster Carpets.

Visitors are welcome. The meeting will be held on March 16th at 2.15pm in Seaton Methodist Church Hall.

the churches

With Nigel Speller

AS we start this week, we are now fully in Lent with special courses or studies in the parishes.

If Lent is regarded as a time for growing perhaps such studies or courses are for you? Do look in the local churches.

In response to a recent letter in this newspaper, the writer of which has been contacted, we are always ready to receive any relevant information from all Christian churches. The churches in the larger towns in our area have been invited to send in regular items and some arrange a rota with all their denominations. Copy date is noon every Wednesday and my email address is nibspeller@eclipse.co.uk.

So a reminder of the Lent coffee mornings, each Friday from February 19th in the URC Hall, Seaton, from 10-11am.

As was mentioned last week, most of the local churches and chapels are arranging special events for Lent but to get the latest information the best source will be local church magazines or noticeboards. Churches in Devon plan to cut their carbon footprint for Lent. This means turning lights off and heating down, and encouraging people to share journeys to church. Devon churches are aiming to reduce carbon emissions by 42 per cent over 10 years.

For those who rely upon their radios and televisions, the BBC has just announced some of its special programmes for Holy Week and Easter. On BBC1 in Holy Week there will be a documentary with Nicky Campbell who asks the question Are Christians Being Persecuted? Another documentary, The Day that Jesus Died, is to be shown on Good Friday, April 2nd, which includes interviews with the Archbishops of Canterbury and York explaining the meaning of the crucifixion for non believers.

A week or so ago, we reported on the meeting of the General Synod of the Church of England (CofE) at which the president of the Methodist Conference spoke of falling numbers in his church to about 265,000 members, and the Church of England now standing at 960,000 monthly worshippers. The two churches had formal talks about full unity ending in 1972 with a proposal for unity, but it failed on a vote. Perhaps it is time that both parties thought and talked again, because it is not just about union but about God's purpose for the Christian churches in our time. There is considerable co-operation between both churches and others in east Devon.

Prayers for the new year, a service for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and still to come the Women's World Day of Prayer on March 5th. In at least one of our local towns Anglican ministers are found regularly, by request leading Sunday worship in the local Methodist churches. It is also noted that the season of weekly Lent lunches at Colyton is for the second year being held on a Tuesday in the Colyton Methodist Church Hall — with pancakes being a feature of the first week.

I have not included much in this column about Lay Readers — to use the Anglican name — recently, but this term covers all those men and women who serve in similar roles in other churches. In the CofE, it indicates a lay person who is licensed to conduct certain religious services. In its present form, the office dates from 1866 when the first readers in the CofE were admitted to office in the Diocese of Gloucester. The duties which may be assigned to them include the taking of morning and evening prayer including preaching; they may also preach at Holy Communion, and with their incumbents' approval may carry out teaching and pastoral work. With additional training and special permission they may lead services of Communion by Extension and minister at funerals. To have a back-up of readers at every church is one way of minimizing the effect of the current reduction in ordained clergy.

Parishes in Honiton Deanery have been asked to look seriously amongst their people to see if any are being called to the Reader Ministry. Do ask current readers about this or enquire from the Exeter reader co-ordinator on 01392 294907. There are now some 10,000 readers of both sexes in the CofE. Readers are especially in demand when parishes have a vacancy, or where there is illness or holidays. Readers in Exeter Diocese have an annual renewal service at the cathedral, where new readers are often licensed for the first time. There is a quarterly journal and in the autumn 2009 issue and the spring 2010 issue there are articles by readers about their experiences.

Colyton Benefice has just, on February 22nd, lost its rector, Father Nicholas Edwards, who has been moved, after six years, to the Benefice of West Exe, at Exeter, with some 20,000 residents. His former parishioners will be attending his Licensing Service at West Exe on the evening of March 8th. In other respects it will be business as usual at Colyton Benefice with the help of retired clergy, readers and other church officers. A new church office will be open every weekday morning on 01297 552307, with email and a new postal address.

Kids' writer Don gets his work in print

HONITON author Don Jones is celebrating after seeing his latest piece of work turned into a reality.

Mr Jones is the secretary of Honiton Writers' Circle and is the fourth member of the group to have a piece of work published in the last six months.

Bookworms and Other Stories is a collection of humorous tales for children. It is available from the Curious Otter Bookshop, Ottery St Mary, and online from Waterstones, W H Smith and Amazon. Local libraries also have copies available.

Honiton Writers' Circle is now on the lookout for new members.

The group was formed 20 years ago and meets on the first Thursday of every month in the Dunning Court, off the Dowell Street car park, Honiton.

Mr Jones said that new members are welcome. Full details can be found at Honiton Library.

Store collects

A CHARITY collection at a hardware store in Colyton has raised £495 and the money will be used to fund a Shelterbox that will be sent out to Haiti.

For the past two weeks Colin Haynes, of Haynes Hardware, Market Place, has had a collection running in store.

The collection raised £470 and Mr Haynes has said he will add an extra £25 so that a Shelterbox can be purchased.

Mr Haynes said: "The collection has just closed and we raised £470 in the shop. People have been very generous and I would like to thank everyone that donated. I found that the cost of a shelterbox is £495 so I will add the extra £25 to bump up the total.

"The youngsters in Colyford who raised almost £1,000 also deserve a special mention and you have got to take your hat off to them."

Mr Haynes added that a second shelterbox will be funded by a donation from a generous couple who visited his store.

He said: "On top of my collection, which pays for one shelterbox, a couple came into the store and said they wished to pay for a whole box themselves and gave me a cheque for £500.

"Colyton people can therefore provide two boxes. I have always believed we live in a special area and things like this just prove it."

4x4 accident

A 4X4 vehicle ended up on its side at Smallridge, near Axminster, in the early hours of Sunday, February 21st.

Rescue services were summoned at about 3.40am.

According to police, no other vehicle was involved and nobody appeared hurt.

QUALITY MARK FOR SPECIALIST IN BACK CARE

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indienews.co.uk

RICHARD Stenning, of the Chiropractic Health Centres in Axminster and Honiton, is the proud holder of the Patient Partnership Quality Mark (PPQM).

The PPQM is issued by The College of Chiropractors and Richard received his on January 20th during an event in London.

He received the PPQM at The Royal Society from Hew Helps, chair of the college's Lay Partnership Group.

The PPQM was launched in 2006 to "recognise excellence in meeting the expectations patients have about their chiropractic care".

Richard said: "Chiropractors provide safe and effective treatment, and we are proud to say that the award of the PPQM recognises this clinic's commitment to meeting and exceeding patients' expectations of their treatment environment and care. "We constantly strive to improve our level of service and always welcome feedback from patients."

The College of Chiropractors is an academic membership organisation with more than 2,200 members and has the following objectives:

- to promote the art, science and practice of chiropractic;
- to improve and maintain standards in the practice of chiropractic for the benefit of the public;
- to promote awareness and understanding of chiropractic amongst medical practitioners and other healthcare professionals and the public;
- to educate and train practitioners in the art, science and practice of chiropractic;
- to advance the study of and research in chiropractic.

A spokesperson for the college said: "Members and fellows of the college have always embraced postgraduate training and Continuing Professional Development (CPD) in the public interest, pre-empting any statutory requirement.

"Since its incorporation in 1999, the college has worked with an eminent advisory board which supports the college in its aim to achieve a Royal Charter to signal the importance of chiropractic in complementing the mainstream healthcare professions, and to provide impetus to build an integrated chiropractic service around patients."

"The college actively fosters patient and public involvement through its lay partnership group and via patient representation on its governing council."

Log-on or else!

IT used to be the case that filling in a form and sending it to the issuing office involved picking up a pen, exercising a little manual dexterity, folding, tucking the form into an envelope, adding a stamp and into the post box. Job done.

From April this year H M Revenue & Customs are converting this paper process into an electronic process and for some of us there will be no choice in the matter – we will have to switch on our PC's, get online, login and file the forms online.

The reason for the change is quite simple really - if you file online the data is received, checked and processed by a machine that requires no training, does not take comfort breaks and is happy to work 24/7 as long as you can maintain its power supply.

Chartered Certified Accountant Steve Lincoln of Colyton's CRW Accountants Ltd explains: "Every business in the UK that employs people and deducts their tax and National Insurance contributions, will need to submit their year end payroll returns online this year.

Additionally all traders that register for VAT after 31 March 2010 together with existing businesses with turnover (based on 2009 returns) in excess of £100,000 will have to file their VAT returns online from 1 April 2010 - in both cases there are likely to be penalties if you either fail to file online, or if you are late filing your return."

Anybody starting to get a nasty feeling about this? What if you live in an area where there is still no broadband access? What if you have no interest in computers or how they work? What do you do, rope in the children in the hope that you can dislodge them from Facebook long enough to file online for you?

We leave the last word on this issue to CRW Accountant's Steve Lincoln FCCA. "Providing you have internet access and reasonable computer skills you should have no problem signing up for online filing and dealing with the practical filing processes. However the clock is running out. As we approach the end of March more and more traders will be attempting to register and the access lines may get a little congested. Best to register as soon as you can. "Any "View From" readers who have concerns about how to register, or would like someone to guide them can call me for some free telephone support," says Steve.

So there you have it – fire up your computers or call someone who can do it for you. It seems yet again that the only winner is our Government who have transferred yet another processing cost to the hapless UK business community!

For more information on these or, indeed any other business worries, please contact Steve Lincoln FCCA of CRW Accountants Ltd on (01297) 553286 email: crwaccountants@btconnect.com

The good news is that the majority of dental problems are TREATABLE and nearly all are PREVENTABLE. We spend a lot of time looking after our own teeth, but often not so much on our animals who are vulnerable to the same dental problems as we are.

Top spots for Magnificent Seven pupils

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

SEVEN youngsters from the Manor House School, Honiton, have been dubbed the magnificent seven after winning places at Colyton Grammar School.

The year six pupils received the good news after passing their eleven-plus exams.

The number of pupils passing the exam is also a record number for the school and headmaster Adam Gibson said: "I am delighted for the children and their families. We are determined to bring out the best in our children in every aspect of school life. Our rugby team has had the best results for 10 years, our choir recently sang in Exeter Cathedral and two of our children have just taken part in the national finals of the primary maths challenge.

"Wherever you look across the school you see the benefits of our children's many achievements and these excellent results are a reflection of the hard work the children have done both in the classroom and beyond."

An open day is set to be held at the school on Tuesday, March 9th. Families will be given a tour of the school and parents' questions about school life will also be answered.

country scene

Written by countryside
correspondent
TONY JACKSON

Hoping for spectacular spring show

WELL, it's a pretty miserable country scene as I write this column, with grey skies, drizzle and a misty, yellow-brown countryside, relieved only by the speckles of late flowering snowdrops.

However, we are assured that as a result of the recent snows and frost we will enjoy, in a few weeks, a spectacular show of wild spring flowers, all emerging together and delayed by the unusual cold. Frankly, I can't wait. I've had enough of this winter and look forward to some spring sunshine and warmth.

Determined efforts countryside to re-establish the water vole, the Ratty of The Wind in the Willows, are bearing fruit, following their near extermination due largely to the presence of mink; here, in our area, there is some hope that they will again become commonplace residents of our water systems.

In May, last year, 150 captive-bred water voles were released to the downstream end of the Axe and nearby tributaries and post-release monitoring revealed mixed results. Whilst there were signs of the animals at all sites a few weeks after release, by the autumn there were no signs on two pond sites by the Nannies Water, a tributary of the Coly upstream of Colyton, while an ominous presence, a stoat, was seen working another site.

By the beginning of the winter there were also no signs at the main river release site towards Whitford Bridge. However, all is not lost! Monitoring in early February has revealed evidence of water vole use at all the four remaining sites, the best of which is the Seaton Marshes where most of the ditches hold water voles. However, the presence of two young otters could prove bad news for the voles!

Now, mink in the area are still a major threat and if you could offer any help monitoring the mink rafts at various sites in the Coly and Axe catchments, which are used to trap mink, then please contact Mervyn Newman, Water Vole Project Officer on 07766 526209.

A reminder that the local garden bird watch is due to take place over the week-end of March 6th and 7th and if you would like to take part a form can be obtained by emailing davidwalters@eclipse.co.uk or calling on 07791 541744. The response last year was not exactly overwhelming, so let's try and support the watch this year. The event takes place over the entire weekend and you are asked to count the highest number of each species you see in your garden. The results will be published in April.

Meanwhile, I note that the sea-eagle row appears to be escalating. The RSPB and Natural England, for some perverse reason, seem to think that Suffolk would benefit from the presence of the massive raptors, eagles which have never been native to this part of England. The idea is that 20 young eagles will be released over six years at a cost of £600,000 and such is the opposition to this ridiculous idea, that local farmers and landowners have now erected posters bearing the slogan "Say No to Sea Eagles Here".

The birds are quite capable of killing lambs, dogs and cats, quite apart from destroying wildlife. In Scotland, where they have already been released, there are reports of lamb killing and angry farmers. I'm all for re-introducing a once native species, such as the red kite, but to introduce this huge predator into the Suffolk countryside seems to me to be quite absurd. However, I understand that NE and the RSPB are making it clear that any decision on this introduction will not be made without full consultation with interested parties. Personally, I don't think the Suffolk skies are going to see an influx of these huge eagles.

◆ Escot - Green Shoots in East Devon

From down on the Escot Estate just north of Ottery St Mary come the sights and sounds of one of the UK's most endangered species – business growth. Building on an exceptional 2009 when Escot won a Visit England 'Small Visitor Attraction of the Year' award, the estate is forging ahead with a brand new business venture that aims to bring jobs to the local community and endless fun to hundreds of lucky children.

CAMP WILD is Escot's very own take on summer camp. Throughout the long sunny weeks of the summer holidays, Escot will offer the children of hard pressed working parents both day and residential options in a brand new Yurt Village to be built alongside Escot's famous beech hedge maze.

Local company support is key to this venture. Yurt Village, a collection of five mighty Mongolian-style tents, is being supplied by the Really Interesting Tent Company based in Newton Abbot. Home-cooked meals will be provided from Escot's Coach House Restaurant, and once a day the children, well supervised, will cook for themselves in their field kitchen. As is the custom with Escot's catering, the fresh supplies will be locally sourced.

A vital ingredient in the success of this project is undoubtedly the Camp Wild web site www.escotcampwild.co.uk. Designed and built by Toucan Design of Exeter who are also responsible for all the Camp Wild branding elements, it is a pivotal element in the launch and management of what we hope will become a significant regional asset.

Summer Camp Manager is Escot newcomer Victoria Siddle-Virok. Fresh from an eight year stint in sunny California, Victoria is an eco-education specialist and a very welcome addition to the Escot team.

CAMP WILD and a JLS concert – what a summer for Escot! What green shoots!

- Quiet Cul-de-Sac Location

VIEW OF THE MARKET

Are you contemplating a move? If you are, you're in good company. Many people are thinking about moving at the moment and getting their property valued but not many are making the final decision to go on the market. This leaves agents fighting over the few available as we all need property on our books after a very good Autumn in 2009 when we all sold most of our stock. The enthusiasm that was evident amongst buyers in the Autumn sadly seems to have declined somewhat with the Christmas break and the snow, the focus has moved from houses to other issues. Even the news that we were officially out of recession didn't seem to give anyone a boost. Those chocolate box cottages that rarely come onto the market are still selling and as usual, Lyme Regis is still very much in demand especially with very little on the market there. However, if all the people that were having valuations at the moment did put their properties up for sale (I hasten to add - at a realistic asking price), it could jolly the market on a bit as each of those owners would also be buyers (well most of them anyway). This would not only inject fresh property choice for those buyers that have lost interest but it would also show a little more confidence in the market. The papers report the London market moving but not much elsewhere, so why don't we start our own little revolution? We live in a beautiful area and so many people want to come here and live the life we already lead, with less of the rat race pushing us from day to day, so we really have something special to offer. Why don't we show it off a little?

Lyman Design is a family business run by Obray Lyman. Obray is a member of the Guild of Master Craftsmen and takes their ethos of excellent customer service and quality of workmanship very seriously. As a cabinet and furniture maker/designer, he specialises in solving his clients' unique storage problems.

So many of the houses in Devon have untrue walls or uneven alcoves beside chimneybreasts. Making effective use of this space can be difficult and finding freestanding off-the-peg furniture can sometimes be impossible. This is where Obray's skills are truly exemplified. He can design and build you a fitted cabinet, which will look like it's always been a part of your house. Or, he can make a freestanding piece, which you can take with you and hand down for generations.

Obray will help you with design ideas and sketches of what the finished furniture will look like. He will work with solid wood, veneered panels or whatever materials best fit the project. Although making bespoke furniture is more costly than Asian imports, you might just be surprised to find that it isn't as expensive as you think.

To see examples of his work and read testimonials from his many happy customers, please visit his website. Obray works mostly on commission but also makes and designs his own furniture. His latest Twist table in oak can be viewed at Dansel Gallery in Abbotsbury.

Design and colour have transformed kitchen aids into objects of beauty - we check out 'kitsch-en' style

At one time we couldn't wait to get out of the kitchen and escape the slavery of toiling over a hot stove. But suddenly cooking is 'hot', as the recession puts the squeeze on our finances and we rediscover the delights of conjuring up meals for ourselves instead of eating out and save a fortune in the process.

It means being a competent cook is not just permissible but highly desirable, even for a generation who once so closely identified with the ultimate fictional 'singleton' Bridget Jones - so lacking in culinary skills that her attempt to feed Mark Darcy ended in disaster. Fast forward to last September, and a film celebrating cookery - Julie & Julia, starring Meryl Streep - was an autumn box office success.

To emphasise this culinary trend: food blogs abound online; this year's UK Michelin guide awarded a record number of stars to women chefs; and UK catering schools are reporting a significant increase in the number of female applicants.

Whether you aspire to become a domestic goddess or simply to cook more, a kitchen properly stocked with new equipment will certainly help. Rather like buying new kit for the gym - wearing it makes you feel fitter despite the fact you haven't moved a muscle - a splurge on great new kitchen gear could inspire a cooking fest.

As leading kitchen designer Johnny Grey says: "Research tells us that we're happiest between 6-10pm at night, which is often when we're in our kitchens. Why not create a living space that extends this happy period throughout the day, making a sociable room that attracts and caters to all members of the family."

Designers, aware of the renewed enthusiasm for all things gastro, have helpfully turned their talents to kitchenware, so there's an array of gleaming, streamlined gadgets to choose from.

And our renewed passion for colour in interiors has resulted in a dazzling array of zingy products, in all colours of the rainbow, that will lift your spirits if not your skills.

"We're stunned at the popularity for coloured electrical kitchenware," says Paul Martin, a buyer at John Lewis. "Sales of red appliances such as kettles, toasters and coffee machines have soared by 112% in just six weeks."

It may well be our recipe for comfort, as colour psychologist Angela Wright explains; "Red, for instance, is an extremely physical, powerful and exciting colour. It can be stimulating, lively and friendly, so red kitchenware and gadgets are what we're attracted to in these depressing, belt-tightening days."

So treat yourself to some new and colourful 'toys' for your culinary playground.

Nostalgia in the home

There is a recent surge in popularity of going back to basics in the home and looking at the past for novel ideas for decoration. For example the popular 'Keep Calm And Carry On', poster created during the Second World War and designed to boost our resolve if the ultimate threat happened - an invasion.

The propaganda poster was re-discovered in 2000 and its popularity has snowballed since the start of the recession - its sentiments striking a chord.

Millions have bought, not just copies of the poster, but other products emblazoned with the slogan available on everything from mugs to rugs.

Alain Samson, a social psychologist at the London School of Economics says that people currently find the poster's words "positive and reassuring in a period of uncertainty, anxiety, and even perhaps of cynicism."

Queen of Chintz, Cath Kidston whose designs recall a gentler Fifties era, when mothers wore aprons and the scent of homebaking wafted through the kitchen, is certainly celebrating our passion for yesterday's more secure times.

While other brands have been savaged by the economic downturn, Kidston has just announced profits rise by 60% and sales rise from £19.2million to £31.3 million. Teapots and tea cosies, bedspreads, and picnic baskets all bear floral or polka dot designs inspired by Kidston's idyllic childhood in the Hampshire countryside.

Tom Savigar, strategy and insight director at The Future Laboratory, a consultancy for trend forecasting, explains: "A lot of people didn't see this economic crisis coming and that makes them nervous about looking forward. The reflex is to seek comfort and cosiness in things that reference the past. And as people stay at home more, stylish home comforts become more important."

For those who love homeware which takes a trip down memory lane, Pedlars is a favoured destination. There are Fifties telephones, restored globes, coasters made from old vinyl records, and of course, the 'Keep Calm' range.

"We find people increasingly seeking homeware that makes them feel secure, and just looking at some of our products reminds them of better times," says Pamela Brice at Pedlars. "People are basically buying into nostalgia and there's a huge demand for those 'I had that when I was a kid' products."

So check out stylish homeware with a built-in feel-good factor to boost your spirits and create a cosy sanctuary celebrating the rose-tinted past.

Decor trends for 2010

Cold winds outside are icy proof that winter's far from over but thankfully welcome winds of change are blowing through home style. Bland neutrals have finally been given the boot and colour has triumphed, meaning that in 2010 rooms will glow with warmth and character.

Feel free to use beautiful, blooming florals, or add impact with strong blocks of colour mimicking catwalk styles. Even devotees of cool monochrome schemes should add injections of colour to bring them bang up to date.

Be cool and contemporary with zingy accents of bubblegum pink, citrus yellow and lime or opt for rich, luscious plums and purples and lipstick reds for a glamorous, luxurious look. Throw caution to the wind and mix elements of different styles, eras, colours and patterns to create a look that works for you.

"Generally, people are more at ease about their taste and this year will be ready and willing to experiment," predicts leading interior designer, Anita Kohn at Living In Space. "They're going to want to make interior design statements to add 'wow' factor to rooms, with bold wallpaper prints continuing to be a strong and popular trend."

It's about being imaginative rather than feeling you have to slavishly follow one style, agrees Alan Hughes, director of Inchbald School of Interior Design.

"Interior design has grown up in the last few years," he says. "Replicating a design or scheme 'off the peg' seen in a magazine for a lifeless hotel look is very yesterday. Instead homes should be personal reflections of their owners, where treasured possessions complementary in colour, texture and form are displayed, and the atmosphere is comfortable and relaxed."

So if you love nature but feel florals are too girly or fussy for your rooms, opt for the more funky 'country chic', which mimics a hunting lodge look. Make a focal point of a decorative replica of a stag or deer head, a surprising best seller on the high street, and continue the woodland theme with wallpaper and accessories that takes inspiration from creatures and nature.

If that's too close to home and you yearn for the sultry colours and styles of foreign parts take stock of the 'far-away look' which is coming into vogue. You could incorporate the exotic colours and intricate mosaic patterns of Moroccan style, experiment with dark woods and artefacts characteristic of Africa, or succumb to the charms of the East.

But whichever style you follow, make sure you make it your own.

Make do and mend is all the rage in these impoverished times and that's resulting in a fashion for craft. Sophisticated stencilling has made a come back with an emphasis on achieving a hand-painted look. Make your own stencils or buy ones ready-made, and apply to unexpected areas such as skirting boards, pieces of furniture, and otherwise dull corners and alcoves.

There's no need to worry about busting the budget, a few rolls of wallpaper, a pot of paint and a new accessory could be all you need to give your home a New Year lift.

Large building plot with valley views

THIS is an increasingly rare opportunity to acquire a large single building plot in the sought after East Devon area, which benefits from detailed planning consent to create a large detached family home.

The plot is situated in an elevated position on a hillside and extends to approximately 0.17ha / 0.41 acres, with enviable valley and countryside views. Of particular advantage to both self builders and developers is the fact that the plot benefits from not only detailed planning consent but also full building regulation plans approval.

The proposed property takes the form of a substantial detached four bedroom house with a gross internal floor area extending to approximately 234sqm (2519sqft). In addition there is a double garage attached to the property providing a further 35sqm (383sqft) of space. The plot is being marketed at offers in excess of £150,000.

Alex Munday, a development surveyor with Fulfords commented "This plot has only recently been offered to the market but due to its exceptional location and size has already resulted in several offers from interested parties. We would therefore recommend that any other party who may be interested in this unique plot to contact us without delay." For further details on this plot or other development opportunities throughout the Westcountry please contact Alex Munday on 01392 813300 or email land@fulfords.co.uk

Barrel o Beer - Where quality food is served at its best for your enjoyment.

IN the picturesque fishing village of Beer, you will find the Barrel O' Beer a family run pub/restaurant specialising in seafood. All our fish is fresh off day boats that fish out of the Lyme bay area. We only use West Country free range, traditionally reared meats on our menu.

A warm welcome awaits you by the Hunt family with a good selection of real ales or a bottle from our carefully chosen wine list to accompany your meal, that wouldn't be out of place in any top London restaurant.

Whether on holiday, a weekend break, living locally or just out for a drive, we believe that people deserve that bit more than just a pub. We pride ourselves on our traditional values of hospitality and customer care. Making the most of the beautiful countryside we're set in, we use local seafood, Devon meat and local game (when available).

We have an ever changing menu with a taste of the Mediterranean and a hint of world cooking. We only use the best ingredients available and try to look after our customers in a way which represents how we ourselves would like to be treated with an emphasis on details which will make your visit to the Barrel memorable for all the right reasons.

For bookings: Tel 01297 20099 E-mail barrelobeer@googlemail.com or visit our website www.barrelobeer.com

NOEL HARRISON - THE REAL THING

NOEL Harrison, yes the real one, the 'Windmills of his Mind' man. After many years as a successful international actor, presenter and musician Noel's latest hit is with village audiences for Devon's Villages in Action, the organisation that brings live professional entertainment to rural venues working with local volunteer 'Promoters'.

Noel has played at more than 30 village venues over the last two years and his next performances will be at Axmouth Village Hall on Saturday, March 6th at 7.00pm tickets from 01297 23847, include supper, and at Bramford Speke Village Hall on Friday, March 19th at 8pm, tickets 01392 841785. There will be a bar or refreshments at each venue.

Noel's repertoire ranges from sophisticated standards to simple country tunes, all carefully chosen by Noel, and sung in a voice that has matured like fine wine. Many previous dates have sold out as word spreads that it really is the Noel Harrison performing in small village venues.

Noel has a life-time of anecdotes, experiences and songs to share in an evening rich with self-deprecating humour and intriguing tunes from some of the worlds best composers. Songs by Leonard Cohen, Bob Dylan and Jacques Brel among others.

And Noel has indeed played them all. From touring with the Beach Boys and Sonny and Cher in the 60s to starring in musicals in London's West End. From singing in honky tonks in America and presenting on radio, to living the high life in Los Angeles, living in outback Nova Scotia to now living in rural Devon.

This event has been organised with Villages in Action and local volunteer 'Promoters'. There is a programme of events out now available from Libraries, local District Council offices, Tourist Information Centres or direct from www.villagesinaction.co.uk or telephone 01363 773660.

Low mileage Fiat service plan introduced – and it's free for 500 and Punto evo

A range of service plans for low mileage Fiat users has been launched by Fiat Group Automobiles UK.

Called Feel3, the plans are designed for owners who cover less than 10,000 miles a year, and allow customers to drive with complete peace of mind, knowing their car has been regularly serviced by trained Fiat technicians.

Prices vary slightly between dealers, but a three-year, 27,000-mile plan can cost around £13 a month. However, until 31 March, eligible Fiat 500 and Punto Evo customers can sign up for the scheme completely free of charge.

That includes a service at least every 12 months using genuine Fiat replacement parts, helping to provide vehicle longevity, continued fuel economy and excellent performance. This also allows the car's service book to be officially stamped.

"Once you have made the decision to buy a new Fiat car, you'll want it looked after correctly," says Rob Calver, parts and services director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK. "We believe we have developed a plan for our customers that does just that."

"And what's more, it's free of charge for three years for 500 and Punto Evo drivers, and stays with the car, even if the owner changes. The plans will keep customers' new Fiats fully serviced and, therefore, safe, economical and operating to their optimum performance. Additionally, a car with a fully stamped service history commands a higher price at the time of resale."

CITROËN'S stylish, award-winning and technology-packed small car range is even more accessible this March - with customers able to get behind the wheel of a brand new 10-plate model, thanks to an enticing selection of retail offers.

The smart C1 city car - one of the most fuel and CO2-efficient models on the road today - is available with a 5.9% APR typical Elect 3 finance offer on most models. The C1 1.0 68hp VT 5-Door, for example, is available with monthly payments at just £139*.

Providing an all-new driving experience, with its stunning panoramic Zenith Windscreen, New C3 is also available with 5.9% APR typical Elect 3 finance right across the range. As an example, customers can now order a New C3 1.1 61hp VT for March registration with monthly payments of just £175*.

Spacious and versatile, Citroën's award-winning

C3 Picasso - the biggest small car in its class - sees most models available with 0% finance over 3 years, with a 30% deposit.

Also available, on all three models, a low cost servicing offer - priced at just £199 (inc. VAT) - covers all recommended and scheduled servicing, and brake fluid replacement for up to 3 years/35,000 miles.

Alternatively, customers looking to take advantage of the last few weeks of the Government's Scrappage Scheme can own a Citroën C1 from just £6,495, a New C3 from just £8,790 or a funky C3 Picasso from just £10,445, with £2,000 Scrappage allowance deducted.

Further reducing the cost of motoring, the low CO2 emissions of Citroën's small car range ensure Vehicle Excise Duty (VED) is kept to a minimum. The New C3 Special Edition Airdream+, which emits just 99g/km of CO2, can be ordered now and qualifies for zero cost VED. The entire C1 range, with CO2 emissions as low as 106g/km, and two C3 Picasso 1.6HDi 90hp models, which emit just 119g/km of CO2, all deliver annual VED at just £35.

This March, customers can drive off in a brand new, competitively priced, low CO2 and fuel efficient Citroën - with the very first of the new-style '10' registration plates.

Common rail diesel technology makes superb even more attractive

- 2.0 TDI 140bhp now with Common Rail technology
- Lower emissions, better fuel economy and refinement
- Prices from £18,205

THE multi-award winning Škoda Superb range is now even more desirable thanks to the addition of the new 2.0 TDI CR 140bhp DPF.

By incorporating the very latest Common Rail diesel technology, this new model is even more fuel-efficient and environmentally friendly than the 2.0 TDI PD 140bhp it replaces. Combined fuel consumption has improved by 4.4mpg and is now an outstanding 52.3mpg, while CO2 emissions have been reduced by 12g/km to just 143g/km.* The standard diesel particulate filter (DPF) also ensures compliance with the latest EU5 emissions regulations.

The use of a single, high-pressure fuel rail and a lower compression ratio has the added benefit of making the Superb even more refined than ever.

All of these improvements have been made without affecting the Superb's strong performance or its price, which starts from £18,205. The new 2.0 TDI CR 140bhp DPF engine is available from 18th February with a choice of six-speed manual or twin-clutch DSG transmissions, in hatchback or estate bodystyles and in S, SE or Elegance trim.

This new engine option joins the existing 1.9 TDI PD 105bhp and 2.0 TDI CR 170bhp DPF diesel engines in the Superb range.

REED THIRD IN AQUATHON

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter.

ON Sunday Luke Reed took part in his first Aquathlon in Dawlish which consisted of a 600m pool swim and a 5k run. Luke completed the staggered wave swim in 10.27mins. He then went on to complete the 5k run in 20.06 which included the transition from the pool to the run. Luke was very pleased with the effort he had made as he finished third overall in 30.33.

The annual AVR clean up of some of the local paths took place last Saturday, one of which was the formerly very stony bridle path twixt Branscombe and Beer. Andy Knight was well and truly stoned at the end of that, he even dreamt of stones that evening.

All the work of course was a prelude to the Grizzly on March 7th. To test out how well things had been cleared a great big gang ran both the Club and Grizzly runs on a wonderful Sunday morning and a great time was had by all.

However the weather in other parts of the UK was not quite as good - Dave Kelf ran the Bungay Black Dog Great East 20k run as part of his training for the Paris marathon. The weather threw everything it had at him - sleet and snow driven by a freezing gale but he managed 1:53. His position remains unknown since he shot home for a warm bath without waiting to find out. Dave was pleased with his performance and felt he had run better than for a long time. Two of those 20K's in Paris and he'll nearly have it cracked.

HONITON RUNNERS

with Judy Davey.

ON Sunday, five Honiton Running Club members took part in the Hestercombe Humdinger which is a challenging 9.5 mile figure of eight race. It is run entirely on quiet Somerset country roads and is organized by Running Forever Running Club. The race is set in the Quantock Hills in the heart of Somerset and starts and finishes at the delightful Hestercombe Gardens, near Taunton. The route is hilly and incorporates almost 1500 feet total climb.

This is the third year that the race has taken place and Bruce Strawbridge has run it every year. He led the Honiton runners home and was delighted to have beaten his previous times by several minutes to come 49th in a time of 1:09:58. Judy Davey was next home but didn't do quite as well coming 87th in a time of 1:15:39 which is slower than her last Humdinger. Sarah Warren was next in 161st place and 1:22:48 followed by Tony Whiteley, 206th and 1:28:33, who was completing this race for the first time. Tracey Strawbridge completed the team coming in 274th and 1:42:54. The winner was Oliver Berry of Taunton AC in a new record for the course of 55:41. There were 317 runners.

The Humdinger's baby sister race 'The Hurtle', which follows the first 5k loop of the main race, also took place on Sunday. Katie Davey, accompanied by her dad, Steve, took part coming in an excellent 8th place in 26:32. Steve has had an enforced rest from running but is thankfully recovering but didn't feel up to the full 9.5 miles. He ran most of the race with Katie beside him but even though Katie has a strong sprint finish, he just had to take off on the home straight. He would never have lived it down if he had been beaten by his daughter! He finished one place in front of her in a time of 26:28. There were about 50 runners.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Helen Gaudie

THE men played the Daily Mail Foursomes on Sunday. This is normally a tough format, but with another fine day on the course, the members produced some good scores.

In first place were P. Northcott and J. Matthews with a net 66, second on the count back ruling with 67.5 were S. Orren and M. Rymer pushing the brother pairing and Craig Trivett into third place.

The Ladies managed to play their Hangover Cup over 15 holes on Wednesday. The winner was in-form Sandra Walker with 26 points.

Twenty six Seniors in 13 teams, took part in the sixth round of the Winter League programme last Friday. Conditions were once again icy, the winners with 37 points were Alan Vincent and Roger Wright - an excellent score in the circumstances. Second place went to the ever consistent pairing of Rob Grove and Bryan Dale with 34 points, and a point behind in third place with 33 points were Gilbert Cox and Derek Williamson.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Captain's Drive In

IT'S always one of the best Sundays of the golfing year, the Captains Drive In, and this year new club captain John Stabb created his own bit of history by gathering all four section's captains together to share in one mass "Drive In".

Of course there was a celebratory game to be played before the fun of those nerve racking tee shots, which this year took the form of a Four Ball Better Ball, two shots to count Stableford, teeing off at an 8.30 shotgun start. And a lot of fun it turned out to be with a huge field populated by all sections of the club, seniors, juniors and hackers like myself.

The keenly contested game produced three identical scores of 82pts for 4th, 3rd and 2nd with only the back nine's separating the teams. But 1st place went to a noteworthy 85pts scored by Fred and Darren McCabe, Dave Carnell and Graham Charlton.

Secretary Brian Young had to be on top form checking those cards to decide the final order. But the game was always going to be secondary to the tradition of the "Drive In"

with all four Captains participating this year.

First up was the Lady captain Elizabeth Ward who struck bold and strong to achieve the fairway with her first drive. Dan Noar, the outgoing Junior captain, standing in for Tim Wade, took two, but enormous drives to get that fairway followed by Senior captain, Ben Laite's five, but classy attempts.

Each was a superb drive but each was just off the fairway and as such "not in play". Which just left our new club captain John to drive the New Year in officially. Thankfully two drives were all it took, nowhere near the 37 attempts of a previous incumbent, with Fred McCabe taking the nearest ball Whiskey as well as his first prize token. Good luck to all the section's captains, their year's and their charities but a huge thank you and good luck from the club to John Stabb for his year as club captain 2010.

Mixed Report.

THE Mixed Competition players enjoyed the Treble Six Competition this week.

Only the last few groups got slightly wet and most of the main greens were in play. The winners with an excellent score of 40 pts. were Denise Nicholls and Andy Sharland. 2nd with 38 pts Jane and Mike Watts. 3rd with 37 pts Ro Poole and Max Pipe. 4th with 36 pts on c/b Gerda Brown and John Ward.

Senior Section

IT was touch and go whether the Seniors Three Ball Better Ball competition would be played this week.

A generous greenkeeper gave the OK however albeit on temporary greens and 66 entrants braved the inclement weather. During the round all four seasons were experienced, frozen ground, very wet, snow showers and even sunshine.

The scores returned suggested many players wished they had stayed in bed. Congratulations go to the winning team of Ed Backhouse, Peter Morgan and Mike Stroud with 71 points who had the last card returned dashing the hopes of Harold Cook, Peter Bates and Bill Nicholls on 70 points with the first card handed in.

Third place went to the three Johns, Discombe, Vessey and Ward with 68 points and the final placing to Vic Wood, David Ive and Malcolm Keeley on countback with 67 points.

◆ Ben Laite, Dan Noar and John Stabb.

Rugby round-up

TORQUAY 23pts SIDMOUTH 25pts

SOME years ago the powers that be discovered that battles against relegation can be equally as exciting and exhilarating as battles for honours. Most knew it already but, on this discovery, the idea of having no relegation from the Premiership lost support. The concept certainly still applies as the Sidmouth faithful found on Saturday last.

The game at Torquay provided competitive rugby in the extreme. Physicality, running rugby, lead changing hands often and issue in doubt until the final minute, all combined to leave the spectators saying "phew", or something rather stronger, at the whistle for no side.

The sides' respective strengths lay in different areas, with the home pack being larger, and the Sidmouth backs having greater potential for penetration. This statement was very much an over simplification however for the game twisted and turned as respective fortunes fluctuated.

Sidmouth took the lead with a couple of Dan Retter penalties, the first as early as the second minute. They had their moments in attack also, and even crossed the home line, only to be brought back for a foot in touch.

The Torquay pack were getting an edge in the tight however, and were picking and driving, and rolling the maul to good effect. Pressure mounted on the Sidmouth line and eventually the home out half dropped a goal to reduce the arrears.

The Sidmouth backs threatened on a number of occasions in the half, with Chesterton and Seward both going close, but it was Torquay who took the lead, hacking on a dropped ball in the Sidmouth line and winning the touchdown race. Although the try was scored out wide, the extras were added, and Torquay led 10-6.

Sidmouth responded almost immediately however scoring an unconverted try through Lewry, after Seward had come off his wing and popped up in the midfield to make the extra man. It was very much "nip and tuck" however and the home side kicked a penalty just before half time and led 13-11 at the halfway stage.

Torquay's forward momentum continued in the second half and they put distance between the sides by scoring a push over try that they converted to take their lead to 20-11.

At this stage, nine points adrift with twenty five minutes left, things looked bleak for Sidmouth, but they used their substitutions well. Matchett came on to give some fresh legs to the back division, and Selway and Howells to shore up the rock face. These changes tended to negate Torquay's edge forward and Sidmouth began to win more usable ball.

The deficit was reduced on the hour by a Retter penalty goal and, a few minutes later an excellent try by Dare, after good work by Chesterton and Seward, following a turn over near half time, took the visitors to within a point at 20-19.

All was not done however for, with ten minutes left, a home penalty goal was responded to in kind by Retter. Then with just two minutes left, Torquay were awarded a penalty, only for the kick at goal to slide wide, and it was all or nothing now for Sidmouth.

In a final attack, a break by Whelan almost put Seward in. He was tackled just short, but made the ball available. Quick possession came and Retter added a drop goal to his four penalties on the day. The final whistle sounded a minute later, although it seemed like twenty to the Sidmouth camp, and Sidmouth had claimed a win that gives them a very real chance of avoiding relegation.

TORQUAY 3rd 5pts HONITON 2nd 64pts

THIS was one of those games where one side is a little stronger than usual, while the other has one or two stalwarts missing. Visitors, Honiton, were very much in the ascendancy from minute one, and their dominance was maintained until the whistle for no side sounded.

They scored four tries in the first period, through Garman, Canniford, after a good break by out half Barrett, Dobson and Webber, with the latter kicking two conversions.

The home side got an unconverted try back, but still trailed 24-5 at the halfway stage. The first few minutes of the second half were evenly contested, but then the flood gated opened. Canniford led the way with a hat trick of touchdowns.

Both Garman and Dobson added to their first half scores, and Josh Rice too got over. Webber kicked three second half conversions to add to his first half tally, and Kenny and Canniford kicked one each to complete the scoring and to take their side out of sight by the end.

HONITON COLTS 12pts

EXMOUTH COLTS 3pts

HONITON chose to face the slight slope in the first period and had to absorb considerable pressure from this very useful Exmouth side in the first ten minutes.

They weathered the storm however and, although their lineup did not function all that well all game, they got themselves back into contenation thanks to some good counter rucking, and gave as good as they got in most other areas.

In fact, after the first few minutes, although the game did not lack excitement, play for the remainder of the half took place generally in the midfield with few scoring chances on offer for either side, and the half ended scoreless, something that would have been seen as to Honiton's advantage.

They received a setback early in the second half however when they conceded a penalty for encouraging one of their opponents to roll away after the tackle, and Exmouth took advantage by kicking the goal.

They had a chance to equalise directly afterwards only for their place kick to slide wide, but were now beginning to impose pressure. They kicked the next award to the corner, won the line-out and centre Hyland put Wood over out wide for an unconverted try. The pressure on the Exmouth defence continued but the game was well into the final quarter before the definitive score came.

Ground was made by the "pick and drive" before the ball was sent wide. A scissors was then executed in midfield, Hyland broke and found full-back Rice in support and he got over.

Meadows converted and the visitors were unable to mount any sort of a rally as Honiton held on for a very useful win.

HONITON JUNIORS

HONITON 7s & 8s 11tries

EXMOUTH 7s & 8s 10tries

Honiton narrowly won the first of the two games played by eleven tries to ten, with Ben Deam scoring five, and Jack Todd, Sam Steele and Emily Lee, sharing the other six. They fell from grace a little in the second game however, and lost 8-5.

HONITON U 9s 35pts EXMOUTH U 9s 25pts
This was a good and exciting game, full of good rugby, with Honiton coming out on top in the end, thanks to tries by Ryan Woolcoat (three), Jake Matthews (two), Thomas Ferry and Guy Maynard.

HONITON U 10s Nil EXMOUTH U 10s 35pts
A disappointing performance by the Honiton side whose tackling let them down.

HONITON U 11s 33pts EXMOUTH U 11s 19pts
Three Charlie Wright tries gave Honiton a half time lead and, although Exmouth came back with three tries of their own, Luke Chambers and Wright scored in the second half and, with Wright kicking three conversions, Honiton came out winners with a bit to spare.

HONITON U 12s 42pts EXMOUTH U 12s 14pts
A good performance by Honiton with tries coming from Dion Warner, Hannah Jenkins, Angus Meadows (two), Scott Eveleigh and Liam Crawford Stuart Clapp converted all six in a faultless kicking display.

FOOTBALL RESULTS, FIXTURES AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

DIVISION ONE leaders Seaton Town ended the great unbeaten run of Broadclyst with a confident 5-0 win on their opponents ground. Victory opened a six points cushion for Seaton as most of their rivals were not in action (see match reports below).

The University scored in the last minute to beat Sidbury Utd 1-0.

Tipton St John stay as Division 2 leaders after beating the University 4-1. Adrian Small with a double strike led the way for Tipton.

MATCH REPORTS

Broadclyst 0 Seaton Town 5

SEATON dominated this game right from the off as the bemused home side went about trying to kick the youngsters on and off the ball all of which the referee failed to deal with.

However the visitors did the talking with their feet and played football how it should be played and smashed the disgraceful Broadclyst in the process. Bradley Groves, Ben Ede, Josh French, Sam Dibling and Charlie Cross were the Seaton scorers.

Full credit must go to the entire Seaton squad for playing good football and keeping their heads and not letting the visitors shocking tactics get to them.

The Manager and the players would like to thank the fans for coming down to Broadclyst and supporting the team.

Man-of-the-Match: Cameron Vere
Seaton: Stapleton, Vere, Perham, Hayes, Alphonse, Ede, Cross, Fellingham, French, Groves, Dibling.
Subs Byrne, Sweetland, Durrant.

Winkleigh 2 Colyton 5

COLYTON travelled to Winkleigh without scorer Richard Tratt for a match on a heavy pitch little grass coverage due to recent weather.

Kicking up the slope in the first-half Coly struggled to cope with the Hosts' midfield who passed around with ease. A silly foul on the half way line and a poor defensive set-up led to Winkleigh opening the scoring in the 25th minute.

A stroke of fortune resulted in the Colyton equaliser 10 minutes later when the Winkleigh full-back sliced the ball into his own net. With five minutes to the break a handball gifted the Reds a penalty which was tucked away by Mike Cullum.

However Colyton manager Keith Somers was far from impressed, he said: "It was a poor performance in the 45 which forced me to go down the 'tea cup' route. The only one player who escaped my wrath was young Erich Busby who put his senior colleagues to shame. "In T the second period we came alive and dominated despite conceding the next score with a carbon copy of the first - Irritating! From then on we took control with a brace from Cal Somers and a deserved effort from Gary Sims who got better as the game went on. "With two or three key players not at their best this was a very good 5-2 win at a difficult place."

BRONZE MEDALS

HONITON Gym Club's Buster Tutchter and Ashley Wallis started the 2010 acrobatic gymnastics season with a bronze medal in the Bristol Invitational competition.

The duo, who have moved up a difficulty level since winning the Spelthorne open last October, took third spot in the grade 2 mens pair.

The boys' coach, Pam Burns, said: "Buster and Ashley have made a great start to the season. This competition was all about developing their skills and gaining confidence in their performance, as it's the first time they've performed their new moves in competition and they proved they really can step up a level. It's great preparation for the South-West championships next week too, which, if they're successful, will see them qualifying through to the national finals."

Buster and Ashley secured Honiton's only medals at the high level competition, which had competitors from the UK's top clubs, plus performers from as far afield as Russia.

However, they were not the club's only performers to put in promising performances. The girls' pair of Megan Moore, aged 12, and Charlotte Bevis, aged eight, also stepped up a level in only their second competition together, taking fourth place in grade two girls' pairs.

Acrobatic gymnastics training sessions take place at Honiton Gymnastics Club, which is based at Honiton Leisure Centre, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, and Saturday mornings. The club caters for beginner, regional, and national level gymnasts.

Anyone interested in learning should contact Helen Nayler on 07825 181693/hnayler@hotmail.com. The full list of Honiton Gym Club performers who took part in the Bristol event is:

Grade 1: Kaisha Dessalines-Grigate & Morgan Bolton-Williams, girls' pair - 9th, Sharna Curley, Becky Fullard & Becky Lawrence, girls' trio - 11th. Grade 2: Ashley Wallis and Buster Tutchter, boys' pair - 3rd, Megan Moore and Charlotte Bevis, girls pair - 4th, Rosie Lyus and Danni Curley, girls' pair - 7th, Mylissa Jones, Danni Hartland and Charlotte Harland - 5th.

QUARTER-FINALS

SOUTH Petherton were given a free ticket to the semi-finals after off the fields problems resulted in Perry Street failing to raise a team for the quarter-final tie.

Petherton's opponents will be Lyme Regis in what promises to be a mouth-watering semi on March 6th. The Seaside's booked their place after a full-blooded 2-1 win at Beamster. There wasn't too much between the sides but Lyme just about deserved their win.

Beamster felt they had earned a fifth minute penalty after Lyme keeper Ashley Caddy appeared to clip Beamster skipper Murray Legg. But referee Chris Vowles, who had a difficult afternoon, waved away the Rainbows' claims. The deadlock was broken in the 20th minute when Dom Rowe found Julien Simier and the Frenchman gave Lyme the lead with his seventh goal of the season.

The second-half saw he hosts wrestle the initiative and Legg surged in from the right flank to slot home the leveler four minutes after the restart to move his personal tally up to 19.

Beamster now enjoyed most of the territorial advantage without carving out too many clear-cut chances and they were punished in the 79th minute when Simier linked well with strike partner Joe Bond and the youngster clipped home what proved to be the winner.

Worse was to follow for Beamster moments later as Sam Crocker received his second yellow card and headed off for an early shower in the impressive new pavilion at the Memorial Ground.

Crocker was accompanied by Legg who was red-carded after the final whistle and could now miss crucial games in the congested run-in to the season finale.

Lyme manager Robin Townsend was impressed by the work rate of midfielder Lee Cleal, he said: "It's only Lee's fifth outfield game for three years or so - but he really is starting to look like an important player for us."

DIVISION ONE

A 5-1 win at Chard Rangers saw Netherbury climb a place to fourth. Lee Seymour gave the Rangers an early lead but the Ambers didn't panic and Dan Rawlings equalised before half-time.

The second period was a one-sided affair with the visitors purring home with strikes from Adam Sorrell, Phil Hussey (2), and James Sayers. "We could have had 12" said Netherbury manager Andy Loudon who felt Hussey's second, a stunning 25-yard volley, was a Goal of the Season contender.

The relegation tussle took a couple more twists and turns. Lyme Regis Reserves troubles continued as they threw away a 3-1 half-time lead to go down 6-4 against fellow-strugglers Perry Street Reserves at the Davey Fort. First-half strikes from Fred Thomson, Ryan Fifer and Gerard Hitchcock put the Seaside's in control. But six unanswered goals from Kris Grove (2), Liam Riste (2), Jamie Best and Kev Rowson gave the Mothers three valuable points with Thomson's second a mere consolation.

DIVISION TWO

MILLWEY Rise maintained their 10-point lead at the top of the Division with a convincing 5-0 win at Chard United. A fine free-kick from Player-manager Shane Featherstone saw Rise head into the break one up. It was a one-way traffic after the restart with doubles from Man-of-the-Match Callum Garrett and Peter Hoare.

The midtable clash between Hinton and Beamster Reserves ended honours even as the teams shared four goals.

There was a surprise at Venlake where Uplyme landed their first win the first week of October with a superb 2-1 triumph over Dowlish & Donyatt.

A finger injury sustained on his round by postman Lloyd Cleal forced manager Rodney Rowe to hand the goalkeeping gloves to 16-year-old Kieran White and the youngster did well.

Midfield schemer Lee Mears gave the visitors a slender half-time lead. But the Swallows sensed a chance and Alex Cottle, in his first game since returning from a long injury lay-off, leveled before Gavin Fowler bagged the 80th minute all-important winner that sees Uplyme jump two places off the foot of the table.

Shepton Beauchamp led through goals from Dan Smith and Rich Pippet at South Petherton Reserves. But Pethy snatched a point with replies from Andy Moody (pen) and Joe Humphries.

DIVISION FOUR

ON a day when the top three were all beaten a lack of players is beginning to cost Waytown Hounds dearly.

The West Dorset side slipped to a 3-1 home defeat against Hinton Reserves at Netherbury.

Meanwhile at the other end of the table Hawkchurch Reserves, with midfielder Dan Morley in fine form, secured a League double and leapfrogged over Charmouth Reserves after Jake Bearpark scored both goals in a 2-0 win at Barrs Lane.

The Robins were no doubt missing veteran Jerry Bearpark who was donning a dress in the excellent 'Summer Holiday' stage production in Axminster!

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Exmouth U18s 3 Axminster 3

AXMINSTER'S fixture against Exmouth took place at a blustery Woodbury Common. Following a disappointing 5-5 draw last week against the nine men of Heavtree, Manager Ben Vine was looking for a better performance from his team.

They couldn't have got off to a better start following an early corner, which saw Tom Vincent, back after 16 weeks out with a broken metatarsal, head home from close range. Some sloppy defending led to an Exmouth equaliser, and a penalty awarded to the home side put them ahead early in the second-half.

The Tigers battled hard, with some good movement from Levi Hoole. A long ball through to Vincent again split open the Exmouth defence, and was buried in the corner.

The lead was short, as Axminster's defence stood still and allowed the hosts to again take the lead. Moments later, keeper Dale Strawbridge came off injured, and was replaced by Matty Ellis, who was already struggling with a pulled hamstring.

Still Ax pushed forward, desperate to get something from the match. With two minutes left Vincent was again sent down the right flank, beat a couple of defenders, and with a stunning shot at an acute angle secured the hat-trick.

Stoke Hill U11s 8 Kentisbeare Colts 2

BY half-time the home team were five up despite the Colts making several strong attacks on goal.

Five minutes from time, Kentisbeare opened their scoring when an own goal went in off Tom Bunker's excellent cross. This was the start of a period of intense pressure from the visitors which continued right up until the final whistle. After hitting the woodwork plus several other near misses, the visitors were rewarded with another well struck goal from Bunker.

Colts' Man-of-the-Match was goalkeeper Tom Godfrey.

Seaton A U10 5 Colyton 1

THE final score line did not reflect play as the Colyton team were energetic and motivated throughout the whole of the match the keeper in goal was brilliant.

All players for Seaton showed a good level of play but need to keep focused and full of effort for the entire match. Lewis Franklin was Man-of-the-Match for never letting a defender through and Will Campbell was great up front and scored a brilliant hat-trick. The other goalscorers were Sam Sparkes and Oliver Browne.

Colyton U11 4 Axminster 0

Thomas Tate opened the scoring for Colyton after eight minutes Colyton's first goal .only moments later, before Charlie Freeman After an excellent through ball from Dom Beer, made the first of several runs from the halfway line, weaving through the Axminster defence, to power home goal number two. Harry Day, in midfield let very little through, and played an inspired game.

Both teams fought hard, but the second-half saw Johnny Dunn score twice, both rebounds from a fearless Axminster keeper.

THERE were a number of drawn matches this week particularly in the evening league. Uppottery at Musbury and Sidbury at West Hill each gained a point which may decide which teams remain in the top division. Musbury was the venue for draws this week in a B team match Awliscombe shared the points. Two 5-3 wins saw Membury and Awliscombe B each gain two home points.

Two outstanding matches at Awliscombe will decide which of Beer and Musbury will be the evening champion, and which of these two and Awliscombe will be the runner-up.

In the afternoon league two matches were played in Division 1; a 5-3 win for St Teresa's gains them a place while a point for Seaton Cliff B at Sidbury left the relative positions unchanged.

SILVER MEDALS FOR HONITON SCHOOL DUO

TWO Honiton Primary School pupils were judged to be the second best schools pair in the whole of the South-West region last week, when they claimed a silver medal in the South-West schools acrobatic gymnastics championships.

Eight-year-old Charlotte Beviss and 11-year-old Lauren Davey were in first position in the under 11 girls pair category up until the penultimate routine of the competition, when they were pipped at the post by a pair from Bristol. What made their performance even more astonishing is that both girls usually train with other partners, and undertook most of their training together during school break and lunch times.

The tough competition, which saw 30 partnerships competing against each other, rewards those who perform relatively simple acrobatic gymnastic them with flawless execution.

Both girls are in the 'acrobatics squad' group of Honiton Gymnastics Club. Charlotte is the youngest member of the squad, normally working in a pair with Megan Moore, and Lauren usually works in a pair with Sarah Hodgkinson.

High performance coach Helen Nayler said: "The girls performed exceptionally well, and were so close to qualifying for the national finals. The event is fiercely competitive, and even includes World and European champions at their age groups. It is a great introduction to the sport, a good way to perfect the fundamental skills, and an excellent way for them to work on choreography together, while having fun at school at the same time."

Valentine Tutchter and Georgia Rooke from Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis brought back the club's only gold medal in the girls' under 13 pairs, qualifying for the national finals. And Adam Fullick from Clyst Vale brought back a bronze medal in the boys' under 13 tumbling event.

Thirteen partnerships, plus tumblers, from Honiton Gym Club competed, with representation from The Woodroffe School Lyme Regis, Honiton Primary School, Honiton Community College, The Kings School, Feniton Primary School, Colyton Grammar School, Clyst Vale, St Michaels, Charmouth Primary School, Farway Primary School, and Offwell Primary School.

Girls under 11 pairs: Lauren Davey and Charlotte Beviss, Honiton Primary School – 2nd, Charlotte Drawer & Cerys Mack, Feniton Primary School – 10th, Hollie Bowkowski & Sharna Curley – Offwell Primary School – 15th, Hannah Selway and Tyla Stringer, Honiton Primary School – 16th, Amy Phillips & Emma Tipton – Feniton Primary School – 21st, Megan Quick and Michelle Quick – St Michaels – 29th.
